WOUGHTON HOUSE
MILTON KEYNES

Start out together in style

AT WOUGHTON HOUSE HOTEL

Woughton House is an indulgent experience in a tranquil setting unique to Milton Keynes. A picture-perfect Georgian manor house, Woughton House has been an integral part of village life in Woughton on the Green through the years. Built in 1844 by Colonel Levi, Woughton House was a family home until becoming a hotel in 1983. Now fully refurbished, this country manor house offers the perfect setting for all celebrations. The grounds and garden area, surrounded by green pastures and parkland of the Ouzel Valley Park, offer endless stunning photo opportunities with a rose-covered arch, a vintage birdcage, and a swing hanging from the trees. Whether you're thinking of an intimate gathering or a more extravagant affair for all your family and friends, we'll look after every detail from the ceremony or wedding breakfast to the evening reception.

Introducing

There is nothing we like more at Woughton House Hotel than a good country wedding – flowers, dresses, prosecco, and cake. From the very first moment you arrive on the grand tree-lined driveway of Woughton House, you can feel confident in having found the ultimate setting for your precious day, and that every single detail will be delivered to perfection. We will be your trusted partner and can advise on everything from making a spectacular entrance to enjoying the last dance, and on the day itself, our banqueting team will ensure everything runs seamlessly with meticulous attention to detail, leaving you to treasure each magical moment.

“The winds were warm about us, the whole earth seemed the wealthier for our love.”
